

Code of Conduct to Protect Children

Ilderton & District Soccer Club has developed the following Child Protection Code of Conduct to guide our coaches/volunteers in their interactions with children. The safety, rights and well-being of children we serve are at the core of our daily programs. We nurture supportive relationships with children while balancing and encouraging appropriate boundaries.

Why is a Child Protection Code of Conduct important? Ilderton & District Soccer Club is committed to ensuring all children are protected and safe. A Code of Conduct is an important part of creating safe environments for children. The safety, rights and well-being of children participating in our programs is a priority in our daily operations. The intent of this Code of Conduct is to guide our coaches/volunteers in developing healthy relationships with the children involved in sport programs delivered by Ilderton & District Soccer Club and to model appropriate boundaries for children. Treating Children with Dignity and Maintaining Boundaries

All staff/volunteers must:

It is important to monitor your own behaviour towards children, and pay close attention to the behaviour of your peers to ensure that behaviour is appropriate and respectful, and will be perceived as such by others.

All of your interactions and activities with children should be:

- known to, and approved by the Board, where applicable, and the parents of the child

Always consider the child's reaction to any activities, conversations, behaviour or other interactions.

- humiliating

- putting them down
